

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008

GUIDE FOR IFTAR SPONSORS

Virtues of giving Iftaar:

“Whosoever feeds a fasting person in order to break the fast (at sunset), for him there shall be forgiveness of his sins and emancipation from the fire of ‘Jahannam’ (hell) and for him shall be the same reward as for him (whom he fed), without that person’s reward being diminished in the least.”

Iftaar sponsors should be aware of the following:-

- 1) Only sponsor a date if you are confident you will be able to bring Iftaar on that date. Please expect to cater for at least 100 on weekdays and 150 during the weekend. The Imam will contact you in good time if these numbers need to be changed.
- 2) Please leave your contact details with the Imam when requesting a date for sponsorship. The Imam will contact you in good time to confirm and discuss any queries that you may have such as the number of attendees to cater for.
- 3) Bring simple food that is suitable for serving on plastic disposable plates to minimise serving and cleanup times and reduce risk of spillages. Your niyah is what Allah SWT looks at.
- 4) This Ramadhan ensure you bring your food from the Rear Entrance of the Masjid because the front side entrance will be EXCLUSIVELY FOR SISTERS ONLY.
- 5) Bring your food before the published time for Maghrib. Allow at least 15 minutes to prepare and setup the eating area. The food will be served immediately after Maghrib Salaah.
- 6) Be prepared to provide a portion of the food for the sisters that are also present. You will be given an indication of how many to cater for on the day.
- 7) When serving, please ensure portions are not such that food will go to waste for e.g. give smaller portions for children.
- 8) Please ensure that the food you provide is from your halal income.
- 9) Please ensure that the food you provide have been purchased from a reputable halal outlet. Please note that not all halal meat claims are totally genuine. Please beware and take every precaution.
- 10) Please arrange for helpers to help you tidy up at the end of Iftaar time, black refuse bags are available in the Masjid. Please ensure that you take all rubbish bags home with you to dispose off in the proper manner.

MAY ALLAH REWARD US FOR ALL OUR GOOD DEEDS FOR THE SAKE OF ALLAH

Prepared on 30 August 2008